

Developers, Owners & Operators of Award-Winning Hotels

High Hotels develops and operates outstanding hotels

With more than 20 years of experience, High Hotels develops and operates the most profitable and preferred hotel brands—those of Hilton Hotels Corporation and Marriott International, Inc. Family-owned High Hotels owns and operates 15 select-service hotels in a three-state region. Our more-than 1,500 guestrooms represent highly successful franchises within the Hilton and Marriott brand families.

Our focus on excellence has resulted in more than 100 awards for customer service, product quality, and leading market share

High Hotels is recognized within the hospitality industry and respected by our brand partners for operating award-winning hotels that consistently rank at the top of their class. These rewarding achievements are a direct outcome of our passion, drive, and expertise-all crucial parts of our core values.

Each member of our tenured executive team has on-property experience, and we're wholeheartedly committed to the communities in which we operate, with a significant focus on sustainability, philanthropy, and a "support local" mentality.

We provide legendary service and extraordinary guest experiences

We believe long-term success comes from hiring and supporting enthusiastic individuals who love to provide excellent service to every guest. We design hotels to be modern, relevant, and competitive, and foster an environment that builds loyal customers and a reliable hotel experience. It all begins with trust. Trust that is earned through performance at a High level.
